

Enterprises will spend on average $500,000, or about $15.5 billion total, on compliance this year, according to AMR Research. The total number will soar to $80 billion over the next 5

Compliance mandates companies are currently addressing:

60%

52%

42%

39%

30%

20%

6%

5%

Source: AMR Research, 2005;
Based on total respondents, n=223

Sarbanes-Oxley

Document and Record Retention
Requirements

Code of Conduct/
Training
Requirements

HIPAA

SEC Regulations

FDA Regulations
(21 CFR Part 11)

TREAD Act
(Automotive)

Basel II

This year, 40% of enterprises have set aside funds for compliance. In 2004, 35% of enterprises had budgets for compliance, but about two-thirds of those pulled the funds from other areas.