

Hilton in the Walt Disney World Resort Orlando, FL
November 12-14, 2008

Exhibiting at a CPM Conference and Exhibition allows you to present your product or service to the most qualified audience assembled! Interact with professionals from the business continuity/COOP, emergency management and security industries. They are eager to implement your solutions at their organizations!

Exhibitor Package:

10' x 10' booth space - in a carpeted hall. Custom booth sizes, corner and island booths are available.

Attendee mailing lists - receive electronic lists for your pre- and post-show marketing. Subject to a list-usage agreement for a one time use of each list.

Conference registration – one free full conference registration per 10' x 10' booth space. You also receive 5 staff badges per 10' x 10' booth space.

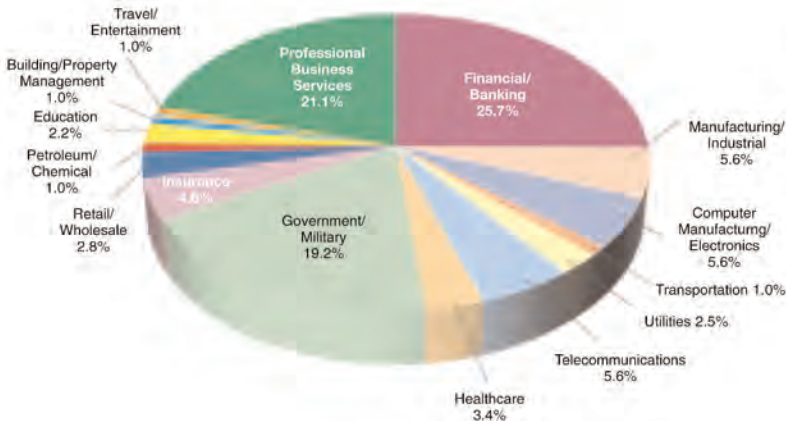

Listing in show directory – each exhibitor will have their company description posted in the on-site show directory, distributed to all attendees.

Recruiting opportunities – CPM conference attendees are an experienced group of professionals with varied backgrounds. This is an ideal opportunity to recruit knowledgeable staff.

Overnight security service – CPM provides a security officer to monitor the exhibit hall during off hours.
