

Proprietary Unix survives, but innovations are slowing down

OS VERSION	PLATFORMS	PRODUCT STATUS
HP-UX 11i Hewlett-Packard Co. Palo Alto, Calif. 800-752-0900 www.hp.com	64-bit HP PA-RISC and Intel Itanium 2 platforms	Available on HP systems; by 2007 HP will phase out the PA-RISC chip in favor of Itanium 2
Tru64 Unix 5.1b Hewlett-Packard Co.	Servers with HP's 64-bit Alpha processor; final generation of Alpha, the EV7Z, is due this summer	Final functional release due in 2004, but sales will continue through 2006 with patches and support through 2011
AIX 5L 5.2 IBM Corp. Armonk, N.Y. 800-426-4968 www.ibm.com	IBM pSeries eServers with 64-bit Power4 processors	Available only with pSeries eServers
UnixWare 7.1.3 SCO Group Inc. Lindon, Utah 801-765-4999 www.sco.com	Servers with 32- or 64-bit Intel or AMD processors	Standalone product, sold through third-party resellers and distributors
Irix 6.5.22, Trusted Irix 6.5.22 SGI Mountain View, Calif. 650-960-1980 www.sgi.com	SGI Origin and Onyx servers and Fuel, Tezro and Octane2 workstations with MIPS processors	Not a standalone product; minor quarterly updates planned; Irix 6.5.23 available in February 2004
Solaris 9, Trusted Solaris 9 Sun Microsystems Inc. Santa Clara, Calif. 800-555-9786 www.sun.com	32- and 64-bit Sparc and 32-bit x86 servers and workstations	Available on Sun servers and workstations or standalone