

Data breaches reported over the last eight months

AGENCY	NUMBER OF RECORDS COMPROMISED	WHAT HAPPENED
 DOT	More than 130,000 people issued driver's and pilot's licenses in Miami and Tampa areas	A notebook PC containing the information—including Social Security numbers and dates of birth—was stolen from a government-owned vehicle in Miami.
 VA	26.5 Million Veterans, 1.1 million active duty military 430,000 National Guard and 645,000 reservists	A notebook PC and hard drive were stolen from a VA employee's home. The items have been recovered and arrests made.
 VA	38,000 veterans in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh areas (see story, below)	A desktop PC went missing from the offices of VA subcontractor Unisys Corp. The PC contained medical billing records of veterans seeking treatment from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh VA facilities.
 NAVY	28,000 sailors and family members	Personal information was posted on a public Web site.
 NAVY	More than 100,000 Navy and Marine Corps aviators and aircrew members who have logged flight hours in the past 20 years	Social Security numbers and other personal information were posted on Naval Safety Center's public Web site for six months.
 USDA	26,000 federal employees	Hacker incident. Forensic analysis indicates that the data file containing personal information about USDA employees was not transferred out of the department's computer system.
 HHS	17,000 Medicare beneficiaries	An insurance company employee accessed Medicare beneficiaries' file from a hotel computer and failed to delete the file.
 DOD	14,000 employees' health insurance information	An intruder gained access to a Pentagon server.
 DC GOVT.	13,000 DC employees and retirees	A notebook PC was stolen from an ING Financial Services employee.
 DOE	1502 employees	Hackers stole personal information belonging to the National Nuclear Security Administration on 1,502 employees.
 SSA	200 files containing personal information	A notebook PC was stolen from an employee attending a conference.
 IRS	291 employees and applicants	A notebook PC with personal information was stolen during a commercial flight.
 FTC	110 instances of personal and financial information of individuals involved in FTC cases	Two notebook PCs were stolen from an employee's car.
	1,000 government employees	Audit reports from Defense Department travel vouchers dating back to the 1970s posted to public Web site.