

BI Symposium Canada

2008

Toronto, Canada
June 23–26, 2008

Be a Part of TDWI's First Business Intelligence Symposium in Canada!

Since 1995, TDWI has provided the leading forum for business and technology professionals looking to gain in-depth education on business intelligence and data warehousing. Now, we're taking our know-how to Toronto with a new Canadian business intelligence event.

Here's your chance to connect with an exclusive audience of business intelligence decision makers in Canada's hub of industry and technology—Toronto. The Canadian BI market is hot right now. Don't miss the opportunity to position your company, products, and services in front of this influential audience.
